

Synod School 2011

Who we were...

620 people [approximately 555 Presbyterians and about 64 others who were members of either a Roman Catholic, Baptist, Methodist, UCC, Episcopal; Jewish, ELCA or other congregation] from 190 different towns in 24 states, one Canadian province, Poland and Russia

of whom

144 were attending Synod School for the first time

and

105 were clergy, including 10 who were ordained in the last 4 years

and

67 were from outside the bounds of the Synod

and

108 were children, including 6 born since last year's Synod School

and 70 were youth (grades 7-12).

To put on this Synod School it took

58 people to staff the children and youth program

69 people to teach the adult classes

1 person to lead convocation

5 people to plan and lead worship with lots of help

10+ musicians at worship and the Coffeehouse

12 committee members and support staff

a lot of other "temporary volunteers" who shared their gifts, ran errands, assisted teachers, participated in worship leadership, and other tasks too numerous to mention.
